PIANOFORTE RECITAL HELD IN KNOX CHURCH

In the Basano Knox Presbyterian Church on Friday evening, Miss Margaret J. Bell, L.R.M. presented a piano recital. The following selections were rendered in an interesting and attractive manner to an appreciative audience: "Allegro Vivace" from Beethoven's Sonata Op. 31, No. 1; Schumann's "Kreisleriana" Adagio No. 6 and Allegro Molto No. 7; Chopin's Ballad in "A" flat; Debussy's "Clair de Lune"; B. Balakirev's "L'Auclair" and Brahms' "Rhapsody in E Flat." She was assisted by Mrs. W. L. Flanagan, who delighted the audience with "Bird Song at Brimley" and "Coming Home." The Rhythmic Band introduced the program with "O Canada," and also played in a spirited manner "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" and "Pop Goes the Weasel," and closed with "God Save the King." The proceeds went to the Knox Church fund.

CROWFOOT

CROWFOOT, Feb. 4.—The local Bridge Friends also play an occasional game of hockey for a pastime. Last Sunday the boys motored out to the Creek and were defeated by 61 by the Cluny Hawks.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Loser Long on the arrival of a son in the Basano Hospital last Saturday.

The local bridge artists were over enthusiastic last Tuesday evening due to the warmer weather. Floyd Nait and E. W. George came out on top with a score of 650.

Mrs. I. Hoffebower entertained a number of the young people last Friday evening. Every one had a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Elton Herford says that the next time she has company she'll be afraid she might have to tell them when to go home. "The very idea of any one staying till 5 o'clock in the morning...O.K. Well, it was a great morning...it lasted."

Donald Walker spent a few days last week visiting friends in this vicinity.

About 50 head of antelope have been seen several times in Hoffebower's they would wait to show up when the season's closed.

Bonspiel Starts On Wednesday

Postponed a second time, the Basano Curling Club's invitation tonight got away to a good start on Wednesday. The weather lightened sufficiently to make good ice and prospects are that it will hold until winners can be declared in both the Grand Challenge and Merchants' events.

Many outside rinks changed their minds about coming and only MacDonald, of Gleichen, Brassard, Hines, Summersville, of Cluny, and T. Dickson, of the North Star O.C., Calgary, showed up.

Because of the lateness of the snow, the match was unable to secure results in time for this week's issue. Full details next week.

PATRICIA NOTES

PATRICIA, Feb. 1st—Bobbie Irwin, aged 15 years, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irwin, died in the Basano Hospital Jan. 30th after an illness of over two months.

The passing of Bobbie cast a gloom of sadness over the entire community, as his kind and loving disposition made him endeared by all.

At school Bobbie was a brilliant scholar, and up till his sickness was attending the eleventh grade in high school. His loss will be keenly felt by his schoolmates and teachers.

Besides his parents he leaves a sister Vivian, and a brother Albert. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family.

During the recent snow storms, a snow plow crashed into a bunch of antelope near Denhart; and it is reported that about 15 were killed.

"Rippers" Learmont has returned after a sojourn in the Medicine Hat hospital, where he was operated on for appendicitis.

Saturday was a busy day in Patricia as 1 carload of hogs, 2 carloads of lambs and 1 carload of cattle were shipped out.

We wonder what the Ground Hog is going to do? That reminds me, a butcher on Ground Hog day put some pork sausage in a box, with a glass top, out in front of his shop with the following notice on it: "See what the Ground Hog does to my sausage assembled, laughing, quite heartily when the butcher went out the notice read: 'See the ground dog.'"

Bob Lingard has been laid up with a badly sprained ankle. Bob tripped over the stock yards.

Hellio Crowfoot! Tell them bridge bluffs to switch their cards to poker as the system they are using is all bluff.

COUNCILLORS RE-ELECTED

Mayor H. O. Bredin and councillors A. McKee, E. P. Currie and W. H. Playfair were re-elected by acclamation last Monday.

Following the usual procedure, the turning officer Jas. R. Donaldson declared these men elected following the nomination on Monday morning between 11 and 12 o'clock.

No new names were mentioned as prospective candidates for any of the offices.

For school board, H. J. Stiles and J. Johnston were also re-elected by acclamation.

Town Council

The town council met last Monday evening at the Town Hall, with Mayor H. O. Bredin and all the councillors present.

Chief topic of discussion was the estimate of expenditures of the school board. The Board of Public Utilities forwarded a letter to the council asking that they pass their opinion on the estimates. It appears that the school board have increased their estimates for 1935 by about $300 due to heavier insurance premiums.

A special joint meeting of the council and school board was to be held later in the week.

We the undersigned unanimously desire to endorse completely the language of Mr. Tait White's personal letter in last week's Bulletin.

SOCIAL CREDIT SPEAKER HERE

Mrs. W. Rogers of Calgary addressed a gathering of about 150 people on "Social Credit" in the Orpheum Theatre last Tuesday evening. H. P. Orah of Cluny acted as chairman for the evening.

Mrs. Rogers gave a comprehensive outline of the Aberhart plan. She said the principles were based on the Douglas system, but the design only was altered. In both cases the foundation is based on:

(1) basic dividends and controlled prices.

She dealt in detail with credit, which she classified as real, financial and social.

She also condemned the present banking system and its monopoly of credit in Canada. The Central Bank of Canada, she claimed, is a branch of an international banking concern with headquarters in London.

In order to be eligible for the basic dividends when they are payable, a person must be a British subject, 21 years of age and must co-operate for the benefit of the province.

Part of the time was devoted to listening to a radio address by Wm. Aberhart. Mrs. Rogers then enlarged on remarks made by Mr. Aberhart.

MAKEPEACE

MAKEPEACE, Feb. 4.—We are glad to set a let-up in the cold weather, the roads, however, are in bad shape, but passable. We haven't had to use a traffic policeman, there are so very few cars running around here.

MAJORITY OF TENANTS HOLD AGREEMENTS WITH C.P.R.

(Calgary Herald, Feb. 4.)

By a vote of more than nine to one farmers and contract holders in the east block of the C.P.R. irrigation system favor taking over the project from the railway company, a petition which closed Friday indicates.

The approximate vote was 470 in favor and 50 against.

Was tentative arrangements and discussion under way for some months the petition presently going before the provincial legislature presumably to be incorporated in a bill to be brought up during the coming session.

After that a committee representing farmers of the block will meet railway company officials to perfect an agreement which is now in draft form.

Supposing what in recent years has been classed as one of the drier areas of the province, the irrigation project represents an investment of millions. In constructing it more than $100,000 has been expended in the Panama canal.

Owing to the fact that a majority of tenants of the east block are agreement holders and not owners, the matter must go before the legislature as a petition to be drafted in form as an enabling bill to permit completion of the proposal.

THE WEEK AT OTTAWA

By Dr. F. W. Garraway, M.P.

Monday was lawless day in the House. The B.N.A. Act should be overhauled as there had been many changes since 1867. Others agreed that the B.N.A. Act should be overhauled as there had been many changes since 1867. Others agreed that the B.N.A. Act should be overhauled as there had been many changes since 1867.

The Dominion Government have given the Railways making up the C.N.R. $1,490,000,000. Not one cent of interest or principal of the loan has been repaid. The Dominion has guaranteed the C.N.R. Bonds to the amount of $1,255,000,000.

The interest on this must be paid by the taxpayers in 1935 and the savings of the C.N.R. covered the interest due the public on these bonds, but in every other year the deficit was paid by the Government. Last year it was $3 million.

The Berry feature of the day was the demand by Mr. King that the reforms promised in the broadcast be brought down without further delay.

No one knows when the general election will be held. List of voters are now being printed. According to the new Act they will be again opened for revision from May 15th to July 1st. If the election is called before May 15th the taxpayers will have to pay millions of dollars in the cost of all parties in the House supported the giving of pensions to the old.

The stock market in the domain and helped on the Unemployment Insurance feeling that such social legislation is what is required at the present time.

All day the press has been full with a political combat dealing mostly with the Empire Trade Agreements. Figures were quoted to show that these agreements would hurt the trade and other records showed a great falling off in such articles as wheat, cheese, milk products etc.

Reference is frequently made to the fact that the present government has been promised that it will be replaced. It was pointed out that all the cattle we might ship to the U.S.A. would only be about 15% of the total.

The opening of the U.S.A. market for our natural products would help the situation in our province greatly and toward that goal we must vigorously press.

CONGRATULATIONS TO YOUNGSTOWN

More than a score of years ago when William Mackenzie and Dan Mann were pushing the Canadian Northern Railway southward from Saskatoon to Calgary, the town of Youngstown came into being in Alberta, not far from the Saskatchewan border. Those were the homestead days and the country around Youngstown was closely settled by land seekers from all over the world.

Successive years of drouth relieved by only an occasional wet year wrought havoc with the settlers. Gradually their ranks were thinned and the country lost population heavily. Of course the town suffered heavily in the process. But with all its troubles from drouth and departing farmers Youngstown has carefully maintained its civic finances in good shape and the last issue of The Youngstown Plaindealer: "All through the years of the depression this town has never missed paying the principal and interest on its debentures, issued twenty years ago for the building of its sidewalks and the purchase of fire fighting equipment, and today owns only $420 on this account which the present year will see wiped out entirely."

Furthermore Youngstown has in the bank in current account and reserve more than $5500 which has been maintained during the year and which was not without good reason. A sum of more than $12,000 is shown outside of the amount allowed for town property.

On top of all this Youngstown has put into effect a reduction in taxation.

A THING TO BE AVOIDED

A rift has arisen in the committee appointed to negotiate with the Canadian Pacific Railway with regard to the taking over of the Eastern Irrigation project. As a result a "Settlers Protective Association" has been formed. This association asks that the C.P.R. put further in the deal than originally the company was asked to go.

The new proposal is for the company to run the land and irrigation works over the settlers without compensation, to give the settlers $750,000 for operating expenses a year, and also to supply water along the main canals and operate the Bassano dam for a period of five years.

If the company is willing to grant these concessions it will be a fine thing for the settlers and the irrigation project. The committee should have thoroughly canvassed the situation prior to making its original demands. Maybe it did. We do not know.

But one thing should be aimed at and that is measure of unanimity. It is a matter of historic knowledge that such enterprises as this which the settlers of the eastern block propose to launch upon are more cursed with internal dissension than anything else. If anything tangible is to be accomplished this is the weakness that must be guarded against.

A CHANGED GOVERNMENT ATTITUDE

In past generations the great majority of the unemployed got along as best as they could. There was no great insistence on unemployed relief by governments, no camps for the workless and very little recognition of a social duty to these unfortunate.

The current depression saw governments launched into various schemes for taking care of the unemployed, on a vast scale. Canada's relief bill has been running into many millions—$100,000,000 a year is the latest estimate we have seen. Before the war the federal government of Canada spent only about $125,000,000 a year for all purposes.

Recently Premier Bennett said that portion of this country's population fortunate enough to possess a fair share of wealth would have to contribute more to the less fortunate. If this were done, he said, communism or socialism would prevail in Canada.

Another thing it would seem that, unless some other method is provided, a fairer distribution of wealth will come about through government regulation. More and more governments of many world nations are aiming at this objective.

Truly the doctrine of laissez faire seems dead and buried. If some of us live long enough we may yet see the dawn of the millennium.

THE THUNDERS OF SILENCE

"What you are stands over you and thunders so that I cannot hear what you say."—Emerson.

So no matter how loud we talk, how we rant and rave our arms, how smoothly and profitably we write, our inward character thunders loudest of all through our actions.

And it is not our actions on notable occasions that count but things done by day through the more commonplace phase of our lives.

"A picket frozen on duty, a mother starved for her brood, Socrates drinking the hemlock or Jesus on the rood." All are comparable incidents and all thunderous of personalities!

We can hide our thought in the secret recesses of our minds, but we cannot hide our characters—what we are.

THE SUPREME COURT DISAGREES

It is unfortunate that the Supreme Court of Alberta disagreed on the Brownlee-McMillan case, three being against the appeal of the plaintiff being granted and two in favor. This case had occupied such an important place in the attention of the people of Alberta, it would have been much more satisfactory had their been unanimity of judgment. Now the case will likely go before a higher tribunal for another adjudication.

Disagreement in the higher courts particularly tends to lessen popular respect for the law courts. Possibly a clarification of such laws as those governing this particular case is long past due.

FARMER "HICK," ON THE RETURN OF TITLES

—by Tim Longbotham

Once we were a nation delivered from snobs,
But alas and alack, they are back on their jobs;
So kiss ye farewell to democracy's ways
And bow down before the aristocrat's gaze.

For an edict has gone from the Parliament house
That a plain Mister man is an out of 'date' louse,
And henceforth a gent who's presumed to be great
Will be served with a title to swell up his pate.

Ten Minutes
- with the -
Scotch Philosopher

His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, is a many tided individual. He is a good dancer, an excellent rider, (though he falls off his steed once in a while) and is gifted with a personality that commands admiration and respect of many millions. Now comes the news from London that he has composed a slow march for the Scotch bagpipers.

We are expecting a copy along any day, so if you hear strange notes away up north-west of the damatic city, you can rightfully guess that they are under the casting a spell on our neighbors, through the medium of the Prince's music.

After reading many books and articles—favorable and otherwise—that have come out of Russia during the last fifteen years, the writer has reached this conclusion:

If the people of that big land have not yet come to the full realization of all their dreams and ideals, they are at least better off than they used to be under the old czarist rule.

That does not mean, however, that we favor government along the lines followed by Soviet Russia; nor yet a dictatorship where one man has more power than any human being should have.

True it is that our economic system is all topsy-turvy and in danger of collapse, but from the Prince Minister down to the humble citizens in the land, everybody recognizes the truth, and each, in his own way, is seeking to remedy the situation.

And our problems, intricate though they be, will not be solved by bombs, bayonets and blood purges, but through the most effective weapon in the hands of a people—the ballot.

Therefore, follow with interest the doings of the men who are seeking political honors in your constituency, and when polling day comes around, ignore the demands of party and vote as your conscience dictates.

The present winter reminds us very much of the first one we spent under the blue skies of Sunny Alberta. The weather from Xmas onward was abnormally severe, and it so happened that the chores of the household had to be done during spells through out January and February.

There was only one job to serve radius covering many miles, and you may be sure that we accepted our turn in a spirit of thankfulness.

The snow had to be shaken from the stacks, (though and damp grades being unknown then) and with two men pitching and another feeding straw to the ancient steamers, you may be sure that we accepted our turn in a spirit of thankfulness.

The snow had to be shaken from the stacks, (though and damp grades being unknown then) and with two men pitching and another feeding straw to the ancient steamers, you may be sure that we accepted our turn in a spirit of thankfulness.

Geese and ducks were everywhere, and our flock of trumpeter swans lived nearby for over a month.

We have never seen any of these beautiful birds since.

As you can imagine, the trails were a fright; and one day, when coming home from a distant town with a load of barbed wire, building material and household supplies, we got stalled in the centre of a big hail-fair.

"Talk about being in the soup!" Up to the knees in muck, we had to pack all that junk to the shore before the four horse team could pull out the empty wagon.

How different things are now. Railroads, telephones, trucks and graded roads!

No more driving for six or seven hours perched on top of a load of wheat. No more wild midnight rides behind a pair of half broken cayuses for a doctor or a nurse.

Nevertheless, we sometimes pine for those days so long gone by—days of hardship and toil, but ever sweetened by that blessed thing men call "Hope."

Now College Professors so fearfully wise,
With highbrows in thousands, and smart lawyer guys,
Along with stout brewers and big financiers
Are striving most hard to be made knights and peers.

And the boys who rejoice in political pay,
Like the cat smellin' liver are sager an' gay,
For no matter who's left with the baby to hold Them foxy gazoons won't be left in the cold.

Yea, it's fine to revive this queer medieval plan
That makes we tin gods for the nation to scan;
An' if I had titles like taters to sell,
I'd make them birds pay till it hurt 'em like hell.

POLLING ARRANGEMENTS ETC.
POULTRY MARKETING SCHEME

The poll of poultry producers to determine their wishes with respect to the poultry marketing schemes for the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta will be taken through the facilities of the Post Office Department and with the cooperation of the Postmasters of the Prairie Provinces.

In each of the three Prairie Provinces the Dominion Minister of Agriculture will appoint a Committee of five regular employees of the Department of Agriculture who are now stationed in Western Canada, to take charge of the registration and voting. The chairman of each committee will be the Returning Officer for the Province.

Envelopes will be prepared and sent from Ottawa to all Post Offices in the three Prairie Provinces, and these envelopes will be handed out on request by Postmasters to all poultry producers having a total flock of poultry of all kinds in excess of 25 birds (including hens, turkeys, geese and ducks). In each envelope there will be enclosed:

1. Registration form and ballot.
2. Instruction note for registration and voting.
3. Return envelope addressed to the Returning Officer for the province concerned.
4. Copy of the scheme.

Postmasters will receive directions to hand to poultry producers (asking for names, the envelopes, and the documents mentioned above) but before this envelope will be delivered to the applicant, he must sign his name to a Voters' Register which will be in the possession of the Postmaster, certifying to the fact that he owns or controls a flock of poultry in excess of 25 birds. The Voters' Register in each Post Office will be open for inspection on request to all poultry producers during Post Office hours.

The voting week begins on February 16th and ends on February 23rd. No return envelope containing Registered Form and Ballot should be mailed before February 16th and any ballots mailed after February 23rd will not be counted. This return envelope which the producers will mail, must be addressed to the Returning Officer for the Province concerned and no postage will be required.

At the close of Post Office hours on February 23rd which is the last Post Office day after the close of the poll, the Voters' Register, containing the signatures of producers who obtained envelopes, will be mailed by the postmasters to the Returning Officers at Winnipeg, Regina and Edmonton.

During the time the Voters' Register is open for inspection, any name signed to the Voters' Register may be challenged provided such protest, with reasons, is signed by at least two producers and mailed to the Returning Officers not later than the 25th day of February, 1935.

Upon completion of the poll, each provincial Returning Officer will make a return to the Dominion Minister of Agriculture, Ottawa.

LOVE, FOR LOVE ALONE

(Vancouver Sun)

Robert Nicholson, member of the Indiana Legislature and daughter-in-law of the Novelist Meredith Nicholson, has introduced a bill which would make it a penal offense for anyone in Indiana to file or alert a damage suit for breach of promise or alienation of affections.

The idea is such an obvious bit of common sense that one wishes that every legislature might speedily copy it.

For lawsuits of this kind, in 99 cases out of 100, are utterly inflexible ethically.

There is no property right in love. For one who loves and suffers the loss of love, there is no sum in the human finance sufficient to ease the hurt.

The "heart balm" business is a disgrace. In most cases it is just a polite form of blackmail.

It is very hard to think of one good reason why Mrs. Nicholson's law should not be passed in Indiana and elsewhere.

Bright Stories about Wine

THE PRIDE OF THE CITIES

● Writing in another place on another subject some time ago we said something which prompted a reader to remind us that, while it was fashionable to regard Quipping as a second-rate poet, it was not possible to refrain from quoting him. We suppose he is the most quoted of living poets, and something we heard at Christmas over the British Empire broadcast makes it advisable to repeat a couple of lines from his Song of the Cities:

"The cities are full of pride, Challenging each to each—"

● We could proceed except for the fear of error, and we may say that, in newspaper office and vineyard alike, it is a cardinal sin to misquote the Bible, Shakespeare or Quipping. The theory is that, if we do, we shall be exposed as incompetent, if not indeed illiterate.

● It was the challenge from South Africa that we noted. It was said that there the commonwealth boasted a winery with a capacity of 100,000 gallons a year. We were somewhat staggered and wondered if there had not been some ghastly error. If South Africa can boast of 100,000 gallons, the Bright people can claim 4,000,000 gallons. We do not suggest that, the better the wine is, the more of it is made. It gives us, however, the opportunity of noting for what it is worth, that the largest winery in the world is in Canada, and more specifically in Ontario.

WANTS TO MEET A LADY
(St. Catherine's Standard)

The Standard is reprinting the following from its classified page of this week just to enlarge in some small way the big hole this paper has on the community. Read this please, and perhaps weep:

Widower, of middle age;
Recipient of steady wage;
British born, Scotch extraction;
Guaranteeing satisfaction Needs to meet a lady who Wants a cure for feeling blue.
Dark-eyed damsel is desired;
Clairvoyance type most admired;
Must be careful, neat and thrifty;
Weight around one hundred fifty;
Ditzy blondes need not apply
To the knock of opportunity.
For 2009 can claim immunity
She can answer with impunity.
For no one can claim immunity
To the knock of opportunity.
Box 2869 Stan. Standard

The ship was sinking and the passengers and crew were lined up on deck awaiting the order to take to the boats. Suddenly, above the noise of the wind and the shouting of orders, there rose an anguished voice:
"Does anybody want to buy a nice new kit of golf clubs... cheap?"

CUTTEN GREATEST SPECULATOR

Arthur W. Cutten, of Chicago, is facing charges of dishonest transactions involving 116 million bushels of wheat futures worth about 70 million dollars, during 1930-31. Cut-ten, who died before the latest trial, was described before the latest tribunal, in Washington, as the greatest speculator in the United States ever had and required to show why he should not be suspended from further trading on the country's grain exchanges. The hearing developed that on February 25th, 1932, secretary of Agriculture Hyde ordered Mr.
Cutten that it had been reported that he, Cutten, was operating on the bear side of the market, thus contributing to its collapse, and asking that this course be abandoned in the public interest. Cutten is alleged to have replied that "Your wire received and your information misleading. I have not been very active in the market."
My activity for the last two weeks consisted of selling about 100 privileges each. I don't think I have sold a bushel of wheat during that time except to protect the trades paid."

Actually, it transpires from the record of the grain futures administration, Mr. Cutten was short 3,760,000 bushels on the day he received the wire.

Senator Arthur Capper has completed that one of his constituents in Kansas went to the local A.A.A. office and asked for shorts for his hogs, instead of giving him help and sympathy, the young college woman in charge said to him: "Oh yeah?
What about some steps for your cows, while you're at it?" - Saskatchewan Farmer.

An old man in Denver jumped out of a six story window because a woman lied to him. She told him her husband was in Montana.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

THURSDAY, Feb. 5, 1920 - Harry Holmes hung up a score at Five Pins last Saturday which will take a terrible lot of practice to beat. 118 was the count and there wasn't a firmment's strike in the bunch.

Tom Evans had a most unpleasant experience the other day and ever since he has fought shy of meeting people from Missoula.

P. H. Barry was a business visitor to Calgary this week.

The Ladies' Altar Society are serving tea from 3 to 4 at the home of Mrs. Joe O'Neill on Sat. Feb. 7th.

In our Crowfoot correspondence appears the details of a little chari-vau party given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Howell. Mrs. Howell was formerly Miss Ethel Rogers; that popular young lady's numerous friends in Bassano will join us in wishing her and her husband a long, happy and prosperous life.

An export permit has been issued for 300,000 bushels of Alberta wheat for shipment to the United States. says the Lethbridge Herald. Most of it is expected to go to Montana via Lethbridge and Coats. The price is understood to have been $2.50 bushel, so that the deal involves practically a million dollars. It will take about two hundred cars, or five trains, to move the grain.

One especially good piece of business was accomplished at the last meeting of the Town Council when a motion to increase the tax on what is on the water and sewer lines now in possession of the town be advertised for sale at the amount of three against them" was carried unanimously.

Here's your chance for a good time and an opportunity to help along a good organization. Dance on Friday Poll, etc. to the Town Hall.

A TRAVELLING MAN'S PRAYER
Oh Lord, look with a forgiving eye, we beseech Thee on those who live to us about the low prices that our competitors make. Lord, soften the hearts of the buyers, who, as soon as they see a drummer, get as busy as a hen with one chicken and keep us standing around until our feet warp and then buy $2.50 worth and want that billed on the first of the month. Good Lord, curb our tendency to flirt with married women - single ones don't count, as they expect it.
Teach us not to complain at the roller towels that the multitude has used before we got there. Lord, give us digestion like alligators that we may be able to digest well the loin steaks, cut from the neck, where the yoke worked. Teach us to be thankful for the stump served up, and called coffee. Toughen our hides that we may sleep in hotel beds already occupied, and cause us to look with a charitable eye on our competitors who are a sorry lot anyway - Amen.

Try chopping up your winter wood instead of having it sawn, and then use how you feel about the machine up - Kitchener Record.

"But what have I done?" he asked. "I wish you wouldn't be so thoughtless when you're dining out," she explained.

He furrowed his brow, puzzled. "When Mrs. Brown asked you if you'd like a little more Christmas pudding, you said her that owing to tremendous pressure of space, you were reluctantly compelled to decline the offer," she told him.
